

TABLE OF CONTENTS

VOLUME I

	PAGE
INTRODUCTION
The Revolutionary Epoch in Europe — Corsica as a Center of Interest — Its Geography — The People and their Rulers — Sampiero — Paoli — His Success as a Liberator — His Plan for Alliance with France — The Policy of Choiseul — Paoli's Reputation — Napoleon's Account of Corsica and of Paoli — Rousseau and Corsica	1
CHAPTER I. THE BONAPARTES IN CORSICA
The French Occupy Corsica — Paoli Deceived — Conquest of Corsica by France — English Intervention Vain — Paoli in England — Introduction of the French Administrative System — Paoli's Policy — Origin of the Bonapartes — Carlo Maria de Buonaparte — Maria Letizia Ramolino — Their Marriage and Naturalization as French Subjects — Their Fortunes — Their Children	8
CHAPTER II. NAPOLEON'S BIRTH AND INFANCY
Birth of Nabulione or Joseph — Date of Napoleon's Birth — The Name Napoleon — Corsican Conditions as Influencing Napoleon's Character — His Early Education — Influenced by Traditions Concerning Paoli — Charles de Buonaparte as a Suitor for Court Favor — Napoleon Appointed to Brienne — His Efforts to Learn French at Autun — Development of His Character — His Father Delegate of the Corsican Nobility at Versailles	17
CHAPTER III. NAPOLEON'S SCHOOL-DAYS
Military Schools in France — Napoleon's Initiation into the Life of Brienne — His Powerful Friends — His Reading and Other Avocations — His Studies — His Conduct and Scholarship — The Change in His Life Plan — His Influence in His Family — His Choice of the Artillery Service	25
CHAPTER IV. IN PARIS AND VALENCE
Introduction to Paris — Death of Charles de Buonaparte — Napoleon's Poverty — His Character at the Close of His School Years — Appointed Lieutenant in the Regiment of La Fère — Demoralization of the French Army — The Men in the Ranks — Napoleon as a Beau — Return to Study — His Profession and Vocation	31

	PAGE
CHAPTER V. PRIVATE STUDY AND GARRISON LIFE
Napoleon as a Student of Politics — Nature of Rousseau's Political Teachings — The Abbé Raynal — Napoleon Aspires to be the Historian of Corsica — Napoleon's First Love — His Notions of Political Science — The Books he Read — Napoleon at Lyons — His Transfer to Douay — A Victim to Melancholy — Return to Corsica	37
CHAPTER VI. FURTHER ATTEMPTS AT AUTHORSHIP
Straits of the Bonaparte Family — Napoleon's Efforts to Relieve Them — His History and Short Stories — Visit to Paris — Secures Extension of His Leave — The Family Fortunes Desperate — The History of Corsica Completed — Its Style, Opinions, and Value — Failure to Find a Publisher — Sentiments Expressed in His Short Stories — Napoleon's Irregularities as a French Officer — His Vain Appeal to Paoli — The History Dedicated to Necker	43
CHAPTER VII. THE REVOLUTION IN FRANCE
The French Aristocracy — Priests, Lawyers, and Petty Nobles — Burghers, Artisans, and Laborers — The Great Nobles a Barrier to Reform — Mistakes of the King — The Estates Meet at Versailles — The Court Party Provokes Violence — Downfall of Feudal Privilege	52
CHAPTER VIII. BONAPARTE AND REVOLUTION
Napoleon's Studies Continued at Auxonne — Another Illness and a Furlough — His Scheme of Corsican Liberation — His Appearance at Twenty — His Attainments and Character — His Shifty Conduct — The Homeward Journey — New Parties in Corsica — Salicetti and the Nationalists — Napoleon becomes a Political Agitator — And Leader of the Radicals — The National Assembly Incorporates Corsica with France and Grants Amnesty to Paoli — Momentary Joy of the Corsican Patriots — The French Assembly Ridicules Genoa's Protest — Napoleon's Plan for Corsican Administration	58
CHAPTER IX. FIRST LESSONS IN REVOLUTION
French Soldier and Corsican Patriot — Paoli's Hesitancy — His Return to Corsica — Cross Purposes of France — A New Furlough — Money Transactions of Napoleon and Joseph — Open Hostilities against France — Thwarted a Second Time — Reorganization of Corsican Administration — Meeting of Bonaparte and Paoli — Corsican Politics — Studies in Society	67
CHAPTER X. TRAITS OF CHARACTER
Literary Work — Essay on Happiness — Thwarted Ambition — The Corsican Patriots — The Brothers Napoleon and Louis — Studies in Politics — Reorganization of the Army — The Change in Public Opinion — Napoleon again at Auxonne — Napoleon as a Teacher — Further Literary Efforts — The Sentimental Journey — His Attitude Toward Religion	75

CHAPTER XI. THE REVOLUTION IN THE RHONE VALLEY	PAGE
A Dark Period — Bonaparte, First Lieutenant — Second Sojourn in Valence — Books and Reading — The National Assembly of France — The King Returns from Versailles — Administrative Reforms in France — Passing of the Old Order — Flight of the King — Bonaparte's Oath to Sustain the Constitution — His View of the Situation — His Revolutionary Zeal — A Serious Blunder Avoided — Return to Corsica	84
CHAPTER XII. BONAPARTE THE CORSICAN JACOBIN
Bonaparte's Corsican Patriotism — His Position in His Family — Corsican Politics — His Position in the Jacobin Club of Ajaccio — His Failure as a Contestant for Literary Honors — Appointed Adjutant-General — His Attitude toward France — His new Ambitions — Use of Violence — Lieutenant-Colonel of Volunteers — Politics in Ajaccio — Bonaparte's First Experience of Street Warfare — His Manifesto — Dismissed to Paris — His Plans — The Position of Louis XVI. — Bonaparte's Delinquencies — Disorganization in the Army — Petition for Reinstatement — The Marsailles — Bonaparte a Spectator — His Estimate of France — His Presence at the Scenes of August Tenth — State of Paris	93
CHAPTER XIII. BONAPARTE THE FRENCH JACOBIN
Reinstatement and Promotion — Further Solicitation — Napoleon and Elisa — Occupations of Paris — Return to Ajaccio — Disorders in Corsica — Bonaparte a French Jacobin — Expedition against Sardinia — Course of French Affairs — Paoli's Changed Attitude — Estrangement of Bonaparte and Paoli — Mischances in the Preparations against Sardinia — Failure of the French Detachment — Bonaparte and the Fiasco of the Corsican Detachment — Further Developments in France — England's Policy — Paoli in Danger — Denounced and Summoned to Paris	106
CHAPTER XIV. A JACOBIN HEJIRA
The Waning of Bonaparte's Patriotism — Alliance with Salicetti — Another Scheme for Leadership — Failure to Seize the Citadel of Ajaccio — Second Plan — Paoli's Attitude toward the Convention — Bonaparte Finally Discredited in Corsica — Paoli Turns to England — Plans of the Bonaparte Family — Their Arrival in Toulon — Napoleon's Character — His Corsican Career — Lessons of his Failures — His Ability, Situation, and Experience	118
CHAPTER XV. "THE SUPPER AT BEAUCAIRE"
Revolutionary Madness — Uprising of the Girondists — Convention Forces Before Avignon — Bonaparte's First Success in Arms — Its Effect Upon his Career — His Political Pamphlet — The Genius it Displays — Accepted and Published by Authority — Seizure of Toulon by the Allies	127
CHAPTER XVI. TOULON
The Jacobin Power Threatened — Bonaparte's Fate — His Appointment at Toulon — His Ability as an Artillerist — His Name Mentioned with Distinction — His Plan of Operations — The Fall of Toulon — Bonaparte a General of Brigade — Behavior of the Jacobin Victors — A Corsican Plot — Horrors of the French Revolution	133

CHAPTER XVII. A JACOBIN GENERAL	PAGE
Transformation in Bonaparte's Character — Confirmed as a French General — Conduct of his Brothers — Napoleon's Caution — His Report on Marsailles — The New French Army — Bonaparte the Jacobin Leader — Hostilities with Austria and Sardinia — Enthusiasm of the French Troops — Bonaparte in Society — His Plan for an Italian Campaign	139
CHAPTER XVIII. VICISSITUDES IN WAR AND DIPLOMACY
Signs of Maturity — The Mission to Genoa — Course of the French Republic — The "Terror" — Thermidor — Bonaparte a Scapegoat — His Prescience — Adventures of his Brothers — Napoleon's Defense of his French Patriotism — Bloodshedding for Amusement — New Expedition against Corsica — Bonaparte's Advice for its Conduct	146
CHAPTER XIX. THE END OF APPRENTICESHIP
The English Conquest of Corsica — Effects in Italy — The Buonapartes at Toulon — Napoleon Thwarted Again — Departure for Paris — His Character Determined — His Capacities — Reaction from the "Terror" — Resolutions of the Convention — Parties in Paris — Their Lack of Experience — A New Constitution — Different Views of its Value	154
CHAPTER XX. THE ANTECHAMBER TO SUCCESS
Punishment of the Terrorists — Dangers of the Thermidorians — Successes of Republican Arms — The Treaty of Basel — Vendean Disorders Repressed — The "White Terror" — Royalist Activity — Friction under the New Constitution — Arrival of Bonaparte in Paris — Paris Society — Its Power — The People Angry — Resurgence of Jacobinism — Bonaparte's Dejection — His Relations with Mme. Permon — His Magnanimity	162
CHAPTER XXI. BONAPARTE THE GENERAL OF THE CONVENTION
Disappointments — Another Furlough — Connection with Barras — Official Society in Paris — Bonaparte as a Beau — Condition of His Family — A Political General — An Opening in Turkey — Opportunities in Europe — Social Advancement — Official Degradation — Schemes for Restoration — Plans of the Royalists — The Hostility of Paris to the Convention — Bonaparte, General of the Convention Troops — His Strategy	171
CHAPTER XXII. THE DAY OF THE PARIS SECTIONS
The Warfare at St. Roch and the Pont Royal — Order Restored — Meaning of the Conflict — Political Dangers — Bonaparte's Dilemma — His True Attitude — Sudden Wealth — The Directory and Their General — Bonaparte in Love — His Corsican Temperament — His Matrimonial Adventures	181
CHAPTER XXIII. A Marriage of Inclination and Interest
The Taschers and Beauharnais — Execution of Alexander Beauharnais — Adventures of His Widow — Meeting of Napoleon and Josephine — The Latter's Uncertainties — Her Character and Station — Passion and Convenience — The Bride's Dowry — Bonaparte's Philosophy of Life — The Ladder to Glory . . .	189

CHAPTER XXIV. EUROPE AND THE DIRECTORY	PAGE
The First Coalition — England and Austria — The Armies of the Republic — The Treasury of the Republic — The Directory — The Abbé Sieyès — Carnot as a Model Citizen — His Capacity as a Military Organizer — His Personal Character — His Policy — France at the Opening of 1796	197
CHAPTER XXV. Bonaparte on a Great Stage
Bonaparte and the Army of Italy — The System of Pillage — The General as a Despot — The Republican Armies and French Politics — Italy as the Focal Point — Condition of Italy — Bonaparte's Sagacity — His Plan of Action — His Army and Generals — Strength of the Army of Italy — The Napoleonic Maxims of Warfare — Advance of Military Science — Bonaparte's Achievements — His Financial Policy — Effects of his Success	204
CHAPTER XXVI. THE CONQUEST OF PIEDMONT AND THE MILANESE
The Armies of Austria and Sardinia — Montenotte and Millesimo — Mondovi and Cherasco — Consequences of the Campaign — The Plains of Lombardy — The Crossing of the Po — Advance toward Milan — Lodi — Retreat of the Austrians — Moral Effects of Lodi	213
CHAPTER XXVII. AN INSUBORDINATE CONQUEROR AND DIPLOMATIST
Bonaparte's Assertion of Independence — Helplessness of the Directory — Threats and Proclamations — The General and His Officers — Bonaparte's Comprehensive Genius — The Devotion of France — The Position of the Austrians — Bonaparte's Strategy — His Conception of the Problem in Italy — Justification of His Foresight — Modena, Parma, and the Papacy — The French Radicals and the Pope — Bonaparte's Policy — His Ambition	221
CHAPTER XXVIII. MANTUA AND ARCOLE
The Austrian System — The Austrian Strategy — Castiglione — French Gains — Bassano — The French in the Tyrol — The French Defeated in Germany — Bonaparte and Alvinczy — Austrian Successes — Caldiero — First Battle of Arcole — Second Battle of Arcole	231
CHAPTER XXIX. BONAPARTE'S IMPERIOUS SPIRIT
Bonaparte's Transformation — Military Genius — Powers and Principles — Theory and Conduct — Political Activity — Purposes for Italy — Private Correspondence — Treatment of the Italian Powers — Antagonism to the Directory — The Task Before Him	241
CHAPTER XXX. RIVOLI AND THE CAPITULATION OF MANTUA
Austria's Strategic Plan — Renewal of Hostilities — The Austrians at Rivoli and Nogara — Bonaparte's Night March to Rivoli — Monte Baldo and the Berner Klause — The Battle of Rivoli — The Battle of La Favorita — Feats of the French Army — Bonaparte's Achievement — The Fall of Mantua	250

CHAPTER XXXI. HUMILIATION OF THE PAPACY AND OF VENICE	PAGE
Rome Threatened — Pius VI. Surrenders — The Peace of Tolentino — Bonaparte and the Papacy — Designs for the Orient — The Policy of Austria — The Archduke Charles — Bonaparte Hampered by the Directory — His Treatment of Venice — Condition of Venetia — The Commonwealth Warned	259
CHAPTER XXXII. THE PRELIMINARIES OF LEOBEN
Austrian Plans for the Last Italian Campaign — The Battle on the Tagliamento — Retreat of the Archduke Charles — Bonaparte's Proclamation to the Carinthians — Joubert Withdraws from the Tyrol — Bonaparte's "Philosophical" Letter — His Situation at Leoben — The Negotiations for Peace — Character of the Treaty — Bonaparte's Rude Diplomacy — French Successes on the Rhine — Plots of the Directory — The Uprising of Venetia — War with Venice	266
CHAPTER XXXIII. THE FALL OF VENICE
Feebleness of the Venetian Oligarchy — Its Overthrow — Bonaparte's Duplicity — Letters of Opposite Purport — Montebello — The Republican Court — England's Proposition for Peace — Plans of the Directory — General Clarke's Diplomatic Career — Conduct of Mme. Bonaparte — Bonaparte's Jealous Tenderness — His Wife's Social Conquests	275

LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS

VOLUME I

MEISSONIER'S "1814"	Frontispiece
	FACING PAGE
HOUSE IN THE PLACE LETIZIA, AJACCIO, CORSICA, IN WHICH NAPOLEON BONAPARTE WAS BORN	1
ROOM IN WHICH NAPOLEON WAS BORN	8
THE INFANT NAPOLEON IN THE ROOM OF HIS BIRTH	12
CARLO BUONAPARTE	17
NAPOLEON BONAPARTE IN 1785, AGED SIXTEEN	20
LÆTITIA RAMOLINO	24
BONAPARTE, THE NOUVEAU, AT THE SCHOOL OF BRIENNE	28
BONAPARTE ATTACKING SNOW FORTS AT THE SCHOOL OF BRIENNE	33
BONAPARTE AT THE MILITARY SCHOOL, PARIS, 1784	36
NAPOLEON IN SOCIETY AT VALENCE, 1785	40
NAPOLEON BONAPARTE	43
BONAPARTE AT AUXONNE, 1788	44
Mlle. DU COLOMBIER	47
MARIE-ANNE-ELISA BONAPARTE	49
IN THE GARDEN OF THE TUILERIES	52
NAPOLEON ON HIS WAY TO CORSICA WITH HIS SISTER ELISA	56
JOSEPH BONAPARTE	60
PASCAL PAOLI	65
LANDING OF PAOLI ON CORSICAN SOIL	68
TARGET PRACTICE (DIEPPE, 1795)	70
THE ENTRANCE TO THE GROTTO ON THE ESTATE OF MILLELI	72
NAPOLEON BONAPARTE	77
THE LODGING OF BONAPARTE AT VALENCE	81
BONAPARTE DURING HIS LATER SERVICE AT VALENCE	84
BONAPARTE PAWNING HIS WATCH	88
BONAPARTE ADDRESSING A JACOBIN CLUB IN CORSICA	93
BONAPARTE IN 1792 AS A FREQUENTER OF A SIX-SOUS RESTAURANT IN PARIS	96
THE YOUNG NAPOLEON	101
LA CAUSERIE — LIFE IN PARIS IN 1793	104

	FACING PAGE
JEANNE-MARIE-IGNACE-THÉRÈSE DE CABARRUS	108
THE BATTLE OF JEMMAPES, NEAR MONS, BELGIUM, NOVEMBER 6, 1792	114
THE DRUMMERS OF THE REPUBLIC	116
LAZARE-NICOLAS-MARGUERITE CARNOT	121
THE SUPPER OF BEUCAIRE	127
THE CONQUEST OF HOLLAND	128
BONAPARTE EXPLAINING HIS PLANS FOR THE TAKING OF TOULON, 1793	134
THE HARBOR OF TOULON, FROM THE HEIGHTS OF SIX-FOURS	137
THE BATTLE OF QUIBERON	140
BONAPARTE, TURREAU, AND VOLNEY AT NICE IN 1793	144
BONAPARTE UNDER ARREST, AUGUST, 1794	151
MARIE-JULIE CLARY	157
THE SIEGE OF PAVIA	161
LOUIS-MARIE DE LAREVELLIÈRE-LÉPEAUX	165
FELICE PASQUALE BACCIOCCHI	169
MARIE-JOSÈPHE-ROSE TASCHER DE LA PAGERIE, CALLED JOSEPHINE, EMPRESS OF THE FRENCH	172
NAPOLEON BONAPARTE	176
THE THIRTEENTH VENDEMIARE, OCTOBER 5, 1795	180
BONAPARTE CLOSING THE PANTHÉON CLUB	184
THE CIVIL MARRIAGE OF NAPOLEON AND JOSEPHINE	193
BONAPARTE ON THE ROAD FROM PARIS TO NICE	196
CAPTURE OF A DUTCH FLEET BY HUSSARS OF THE FRENCH REPUBLIC, JANUARY, 1795	200
RAMPON'S SOLDIERS TAKING THE OATH NEVER TO SURRENDER	209
MARSHAL ANDRÉ MASSÉNA	212
BONAPARTE AIMING THE CANNON AT LODI	216
BONAPARTE SURPRISED AT LONATO WITH HIS STAFF AND 1200 MEN, COMPELS 4000 AUSTRIANS TO SURRENDER	219
NAPOLEON BONAPARTE	221
BONAPARTE IN ITALY	225
BONAPARTE IN ITALY, 1796	229
BONAPARTE AT ARCOLE	236
BONAPARTE AT ARCOLE	238
A GRENADIER	245
THE BATTLE OF RIVOLI, JANUARY 14, 1797	253
MARSHAL JEAN-MATTHIEU-PHILIBERT, COUNT SÉRURIER	256
BULLETIN OF VICTORY FROM THE ARMIES OF ITALY, 1797	260
ARCHDUKE CHARLES OF AUSTRIA	265
FRANCIS I., EMPEROR OF AUSTRIA	268
CAPTURE OF THE PASS OF TARVIS	272
THE FRENCH BEFORE THE DUCAL PALACE, VENICE	276
EUGÉNIE-BERNARDINE-DÉSIRÉE CLARY	280